Required courses to be included in 450-hour formal AOD Studies program

The 450-hour formal education courses in an alcohol and other drug (AOD) studies program may be obtained from any State-approved or regionally-accredited institution of higher learning. They should include instruction in either the "TAP 21 Counselor Competencies" or "The Twelve Core Functions" of an addiction counselor (most alcohol and drug studies programs will include one or both of these within its curriculum). Here are the subjects that should be included in the formal education program that you have completed:

Subjects

Understanding Addiction

Treatment Knowledge (including Communicable Diseases)

Application to Practice (including Special Populations)

Professional Readiness

Ethics

Prevention of Sexual Harassment

The Formal Education subjects and what they should include are explained below

Understanding Addiction – includes understanding theories of addiction, recognizing social and cultural factors within which addiction exists, behavioral and physical effects of psychoactive substances, and recognition of potential for substance abuse disorders to co-exist with other medical and psychological disorders.

Treatment Knowledge – includes philosophies and practices of generally accepted models of treatment, recovery, relapse prevention and continuing care for addiction, the importance of family and community systems in the treatment and recovery process, recognizing the importance of ongoing study in clinical practice, and understanding of multidisciplinary, non-traditional or various approaches to addiction treatment. Communicable Diseases includes tuberculosis, HIV disease and Hepatitis C.

Application to Practice – includes understanding diagnostic criteria for addiction treatment and placement, providing the appropriate treatment in consideration of a client's personal and cultural background situation, and familiarity with the acceptable range of medical and pharmacological resources available for treatment. Special Populations includes aging individuals; individuals with co-occurring disorders (e.g., alcoholism and mental illness); individuals with post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) individuals with disabilities; diverse populations; individuals with cultural differences; individuals on probation/parole, etc.

Professional Readiness – includes personal and professional growth, understanding supervision in the delivery of client services, professional obligation to adhere to ethical standards, understanding of and participation in prevention as well as treatment programs, and understanding of procedures for handling crisis or dangerous situations.

SECTION 9. CODE OF ETHICS

You are required to maintain compliance with the Code of Ethics for RAS Professionals. Sign this Code of Ethics at the space provided below.

REGISTERED ADDICTION SPECIALIST

CODE OF ETHICS

As a Registered Addiction Specialist, I will comply with this Code of Ethics and do affirm:

- That my primary goal is recovery for the client and the client's family.
- That I have a total commitment to provide the highest quality of care to those who seek my professional services. That I shall not provide services beyond the terms and conditions of my professional certifications and/or licenses.
- That I shall evidence a genuine interest in all my clients, and do hereby dedicate myself to the best interest of my clients and to help them help themselves.
- That I shall maintain at all times an objective, professional relationship with all of my clients. I shall not engage in social or business relationships with my clients for my personal gain.
- That I shall be willing to recognize when it is in the best interests of my clients to release and refer them to another program or another helping individual.
- That I shall adhere to the Rule of Confidentiality with regard to all records, material and knowledge concerning my client, and shall protect his/her rights to confidentiality in accord with Code of Federal Regulations, Title 42 sections 2.1 through 2.67(1) and any other applicable regulations.
- That I shall cooperate with complaint investigation and supply information requested during such complaint investigations, subject to the confidentiality provisions cited above.
- That I shall not in any way discriminate between clients or fellow professionals on the basis of race, religion, age, gender, disability, national ancestry, sexual orientation or economic condition.
- That I shall respect the rights and views of my fellow Registered Addiction Specialists and other professionals. I will not verbally, physically or sexually harass, threaten, or abuse any program participant, patient, client or fellow addiction professional.
- That I shall maintain respect for institutional policies and management within agencies, and will take the initiative toward improvement of such policies and management when it will better serve the interests of my clients.
- That I have a continuing commitment to assess my own personal strengths, limitations, biases and effectiveness.
- That I shall continuously strive for self-improvement and professional growth through further education and training.
- That I have an individual responsibility for my own conduct in all areas, including, but not limited to, the use of mood-altering drugs. I shall not provide counseling or education services while under the influence of any amount of alcohol or illicit drugs (not including drugs or medication prescribed by a physician or other person authorized to prescribe drugs, used in the dosage and frequency prescribed; nor including over-the-counter medications used in the dosage and frequency described on the box, bottle or package insert).
- That I have an individual responsibility for myself in regard to sexual conduct and/or contact with clients, and shall not engage in sexual conduct with current program participants, patients or clients.
- These things I pledge to my professional peers and to my client.
- I hereby pledge to comply with this Code of Ethics, as well as to comply with a consistent code of conduct that may be applicable to a recovery or treatment program with which I may be affiliated.
